LARGE CASE TEAM

We're making large cases easier for you and your clients!

We recognise that larger cases are often more complex as they can require detailed medical and financial assessments. That's why we offer you a dedicated team who will look after your large case application.

You'll benefit from access to a specialist underwriter who will deal with the application from start to finish.

Our dedicated team will actively chase and review medical evidence on the day of receipt to avoid long delays – which means less hassle for you and confidence that your client's application will be processed as quickly and efficiently as possible.
