Durham aim to extend lead

The LV= County Championship returns after a short break with Division One leaders Durham hosting struggling Yorkshire.

Phil Mustard's side have had an excellent start to the season, winning five of their eight matches, and hold a healthy 17-point lead over second-placed Lancashire, whom they comprehensively beat by an innings and 125 runs in their last four-day outing.

Yorkshire's form is a total contrast as they struggle to emulate last season's impressive campaign. Andrew Gale's side have won only once in the long format this term and will need to improve their batting if they are to trouble the leaders.

Bottom-placed Hampshire travel to fellow strugglers Worcestershire in what could be a significant game at the foot of Division One. Dominic Cork's men, with a renewed confidence from excelling in the 20-over format, are looking for their first win of the season while Worcestershire will be buoyant after their six-wicket triumph over champions Nottinghamshire.

Lancashire travel to Trent Bridge looking to keep hot on the heels of Durham after an impressive start to the season, which has seen them win five out of seven games. Notts, on the other hand, are spiralling towards the wrong end of the table following a run of three consecutive championship defeats.

Marcus Trescothick will be looking to move beyond to 1,000 championship runs for the season when his Somerset side face Warwickshire at Edgbaston. The former England opener needs just 22 to reach the milestone as he seeks to re-ignite his side's title charge in the second half of the campaign.

Division Two leaders Northamptonshire visit bottom-placed Leicestershire as they go in search of extending their lead. Andrew Hall's side have yet to taste defeat in the four-day game this campaign while Leicestershire have recorded only one victory.

Middlesex will look to close the gap on the top against third-bottom Kent. Should he miss out on England duty, Steven Finn could spearhead the Middlesex bowling attack against a Kent side who have renewed confidence after piling on the runs in the five-wicket win over Leicestershire.

Surrey have suffered only one defeat in the championship this season and will be hoping to continue their rise up the table with a victory over Gloucestershire. Surrey will be relying on the likes of Jade Dernbach and Steven Davies to continue their fine form against a stubborn Gloucestershire side, who have drawn three of their last four matches.
