

Classic Car Insurance

Welcome to LV=

Thank you for choosing LV= car insurance. We hope you'll be happy with the cover and service you get from us. This booklet tells you everything you need to know about your insurance, so please keep it safe with your schedule and certificate of motor insurance.

This product meets the demands and needs of someone wishing to insure their vehicle. The level of cover and any optional extras you have chosen will be shown on your schedule. Liverpool Victoria Insurance Company Limited (LV=) has not provided you with any advice or recommendations as to whether this product meets your specific insurance requirements. Our staff are paid a salary and may receive an annual bonus but these are not directly influenced by your decision to purchase this policy. You should review your insurance requirements on a regular basis.

All communications will be in English. You can get this and other documents from us in Braille, large print or audiotape by contacting us. Calls will be recorded for training and monitoring purposes.

Your classic car insurance policy

Please read this document of classic car insurance, your schedule and your certificate of motor insurance as one document. This is your contract with us.

In return for your payment we'll give you insurance cover as set out in this booklet according to the cover selections and period of insurance shown on your schedule.

Your policy is underwritten by Liverpool Victoria Insurance Company Ltd.

Our commitment to you

We'll always:

- make sure all the information we give you is clear and accurate
- be fair and reasonable
- act promptly

Your responsibility to give us correct information

Please make sure all the information you give us is correct and complete and let us know if anything is incorrect. This is important because if you don't we may cancel your insurance from its start date and/or not pay your claim. If you're not sure whether you need to tell us about something please ask.

What happens if we can't meet our liabilities?

If we can't meet our liabilities, you may be able to claim from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). There are different levels of compensation, depending on what kind of insurance you have:

- compulsory insurance, such as third party motor liability, 100% of the claim is covered
- non compulsory insurance, such as accidental damage to your car, 90% of the claim is covered.

You can get further information from: Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London EC3A 7QU.

In section 3 of your document of classic car insurance it also includes a trailer, caravan or broken-down vehicle while they're attached to your car for towing.

Territorial limits and European cover

Territorial limits

Except where we say otherwise your insurance applies in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands. This includes while your car is being transported within and between them.

European cover

We'll provide the same level of cover you have in the territorial limits, while you are travelling in EU countries and any other country that follows EU directives. This includes when your car is being transported within and between them and is subject to your car:

- being registered and normally kept in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands; and
- not kept abroad for more than 180 days during your period of cover.

Note: This cover is automatically provided, so there is no need to contact us before travelling to any of the countries listed on your certificate of motor insurance. Please ensure you take your certificate with you as proof of insurance.

Use in other countries

If you want to use your car in countries not listed on your certificate of motor insurance, if we agree and you pay any extra cost, we'll provide the same level of cover you have in the territorial limits, to apply:

- in the countries we've agreed, including when your car is being transported within and between them; and
- for the period agreed.

We'll send you a green card as proof of your insurance.

If your car is lost or damaged in any foreign country that we've agreed to give you cover for, you may be charged customs duty. If we cover the loss of or damage to your car we'll also refund you the customs duty.

Section 1 Damage to your car

What is covered:

If your car and/or its accessories (including when kept in your garage) are damaged by accident or vandalism we will:

- pay for repairs to your car; or
- pay no more than the agreed value of your car. When you accept this payment, your car becomes our property, unless we agree otherwise.

Misfuelling

If you accidentally fill your car with the wrong fuel, we'll pay to drain and flush your fuel tank. Any damage to your car engine caused directly by the wrong fuel will also be covered. Once we have details of the misfuelling, we'll agree with you how to arrange the repair. If you've already made arrangements to repair the damage, we will only consider payment if you provide receipts.

Uninsured driver promise

If you're hit by an uninsured driver or motorcyclist and the accident is not your fault, you won't pay any excess. We'll need you to provide the registration number, make, model and colour of the other vehicle involved and also the driver's or motorcyclist's details. When you claim you may have to pay your excess but when we confirm that the uninsured driver was at fault we'll refund this to you.

Section 2 Fire and theft

What is covered:

If your car and/or its accessories (including when kept in your garage) are lost or damaged by fire, lightning, explosion, theft or attempted theft we will:

- pay for repairs to your car; or
- pay no more than the agreed value of your car. When you accept this payment, your car becomes our property, unless we agree otherwise.

What is not covered under sections 1 and 2

We won't pay for:

- loss or damage to your car by theft or attempted theft if:
 - your car has been left unlocked;
 - your car has been left with a window or roof open;
 - the engine has been left running when unattended;
 - your car doesn't have a working tracking device when unattended and your schedule confirms this is required;
 - your car was not locked in a private garage overnight and your schedule confirms this is required;
 - the ignition key or other ignition device is left in, on or attached to or left in the immediate proximity of your car.
- damage to the ignition key or other ignition device caused by wear and tear;
- wear and tear, your car losing value, or for any repairs which improve your car beyond its condition before the loss or damage happened;
- mechanical, electrical, electronic or computer failures (including failure caused by hacks, viruses or malware), breakdowns or breakages;
- damage to tyres caused by braking, punctures, cuts or bursts;
- more than the manufacturer's latest list price in the United Kingdom (UK) of any part or accessory. If such a list price is not available the most we'll pay is the manufacturer's latest list price in the UK for an equivalent part or accessory;
- additional costs caused by the unavailability of any part or accessory. This includes the cost of importing any part or accessory into the UK;
- loss or damage to your car caused:
 - directly by pressure waves from aircraft and other aerial devices travelling at sonic or supersonic speeds;
 - by deception, fraud or trickery, including when you're offering your car for sale;
 - as a result of it being confiscated or destroyed by or under official order of any government, public or local authority;
 - as a result of your car being returned to its rightful owner;
 - if you haven't taken care to protect your car. (See care of your car under the general conditions section).
- loss of use of your car or any other indirect loss, such as travel expenses or loss of earnings;
- loss or damage where your car is driven or used without your permission by a member of your family or household unless you report them to the police for taking your car without your consent;
- deliberate damage caused to your car by anyone insured under your policy;
- loss or damage to any trailer, caravan or broken-down motor vehicle whether or not it's being towed by or attached to your car;
- any additional damage resulting from your car being moved by anyone insured under your policy after an accident, fire or theft;
- loss of any cherished or personalised number plate;

- the excess shown on your schedule.

Where your schedule confirms ‘Off Road Cover’ applies, we won’t pay for:

- damage by accident or fire if at the time of the event which is the reason for your claim, your car was on a public road or being driven under its own power or being exhibited at a rally or an organised event;
- loss or damage by theft or attempted theft, unless at the time of the event which is the reason for your claim, your car was locked in a private locked garage or was being exhibited at a rally or organised event.

How we settle your claim under sections 1 and 2

Ownership

If your car belongs to someone else, or is under a hire purchase or leasing agreement, we’ll pay the legal owner.

Repairs

Once we have details of the accident, if the loss or damage is covered and the costs of the repairs are less than the agreed value, we’ll agree with you how to arrange the repairs.

We may use parts or accessories, which aren’t made or supplied by your car’s manufacturer but are of similar type and quality to the parts and accessories we’re replacing.

Total loss settlement

The maximum amount we’ll pay will be the agreed value shown on your schedule. The lost or damaged car will then become our property, unless other arrangements are agreed at the time.

Journey continuation

If your car can’t be driven following a claim covered under sections 1 and 2, and you’re more than 25 miles from where your journey started, we’ll reimburse you up to £500 in total for any alternative transport and/or overnight accommodation that you arrange to continue your journey. We’ll only pay these costs if you provide receipts.

Excesses that apply

If your schedule shows that you have an excess, you must pay that as the first part of any claim.

Section 3 Liability to other people

What is covered:

As a result of any accident involving your car or any other vehicle your certificate of motor insurance allows you to drive, we'll pay all sums you are legally responsible for:

- following death of or bodily injury to other people; and
- up to £20,000,000 for damage to their property.

Other people

In the same way as you're insured, we'll insure:

- any person you allow to drive or use your car, if this is allowed on your schedule and your certificate of motor insurance;
- any passenger travelling in or getting into or out of your car;
- the employer or business partner of any person who is driving or using your car for their business, as long as this is allowed on your schedule and your certificate of motor insurance; and
- the legal representative of any person who has died if they would have been entitled to protection under this section.

Legal costs

Following a claim under this policy, we'll pay your reasonable legal costs and expenses relating to:

- solicitors' fees for representation at a coroner's inquest, fatal accident inquiry or court of summary jurisdiction; and
- defence of any legal proceedings for manslaughter or causing death by dangerous or reckless driving.

In assessing whether legal costs and expenses are reasonable we consider:

- the level of legal expertise required, taking into account the nature of the case;
- the level of costs charged by the legal representative;
- whether legal representation for a defence of a prosecution is likely to affect the outcome.

Emergency medical treatment

We'll pay for emergency medical treatment required under the Road Traffic Act, following an accident in your car.

What is not covered under section 3

We won't pay for:

- any death, injury, loss or damage caused directly or indirectly as a result of any deliberate act by you or any person driving your car;
- death of or bodily injury to any employee arising out of or in the course of their employment by any person who is covered by this section, unless they're a passenger in any vehicle for which insurance is provided by this section;
- legal responsibility which is covered by any other insurance;

- loss of or damage to any car which is covered by this section;
- loss of or damage to any trailer, caravan or vehicle (or their contents) whilst being towed by or attached to any car which is covered by this section;
- the loss of or damage to any property which belongs to or is in the care of any person who is claiming under this section;
- legal responsibility, loss or damage when your car is being used in the operational boundaries of any airport or airfield except when required under the Road Traffic Act;
- more than £20,000,000 for any one incident or series of incidents arising from one event that causes loss or damage to property. This amount is inclusive of all costs and expenses up to £5,000,000.

Section 4 Use by the motor trade, hotels and car parks

We'll give you the cover under section 1 Damage to your car and section 2 Fire and theft, if included on your schedule. We won't apply any driving and use restrictions or any excess while your car is with:

- a member of the motor trade for service/repair/recovery; or
- a hotel, restaurant, car park or similar commercial organisation for parking purposes.

Section 5 Personal accident benefits

What is covered:

We'll pay the amount shown on your schedule if you, your partner or a named driver of your car are injured in or getting into or out of your car, and within 12 months of the accident, this injury alone results in:

- death;
- permanent loss of any limb above the wrist or ankle;
- permanent and total loss of use of any limb above the wrist or ankle;
- permanent and total loss of hearing in one or both ears;
- permanent and total loss of sight in one or both eyes; or
- permanent total disablement, resulting in an inability to do any sort of work for the remainder of their life.

We'll pay the injured person or their legal representative.

We won't pay for:

- more than the amount shown on your schedule during any one period of cover;
- any injury or death resulting from suicide or attempted suicide;
- any injuries if the driver of your car is convicted of an alcohol or drugs related motoring offence as a result of the accident;
- any injuries if the driver of your car is proven, following a coroner's inquest or fatal accident inquiry, to be driving whilst unfit through alcohol or drugs, whether prescribed or otherwise at the time of the accident; or
- anyone failing to wear a seat belt when required by law.

Section 6 Medical expenses and physical assault benefits

Medical expenses

We'll pay up to £250 for you or your passengers for any medical expenses resulting from an accident while travelling in your car. This is in addition to the compulsory emergency medical treatment fee under section 3, liability to other people.

Physical assault benefits

Road rage

We'll pay £500 if you or your partner are physically assaulted as a result of your car being in an accident.

We'll pay the injured person or their legal representative.

We won't pay when the incident:

- is caused by a relative or a person known to you or your partner;
- is not reported to the police as soon as possible; or
- is caused or contributed to by anything said or done by you, your partner, or by a passenger in your car after the accident.

Aggravated car theft

We'll pay £500 if you or your partner are physically assaulted as a result of your car being subjected to a theft or attempted theft.

We'll pay the injured person or their legal representative.

We won't pay when the incident:

- is caused by a relative or a person known to you or your partner; or
- is not reported to the police as soon as possible.

Section 7 Personal belongings

What is covered:

We'll pay up to £300 for personal belongings in your car if lost or damaged due to accident, fire, theft or attempted theft.

We won't pay for:

- the theft or attempted theft of personal belongings if your car has been left unlocked or with a window or roof open or with the ignition key/device in, on or attached to or left in the immediate proximity of your car;
- the theft of personal belongings unless they're kept out of sight in the glove compartment or the locked boot of your car;
- money, stamps, tickets, documents or securities;
- goods, tools, samples or equipment carried in connection with any trade or business;
- property covered under any other insurance; or
- car accessories, see 'How we settle your claim under sections 1 and 2'.

Section 8 General exceptions

These general exceptions apply to the whole contract and are in addition to the exclusions shown under 'We won't pay for' in each section of this document of classic car insurance.

1. Change of circumstances – notification and acceptance

This insurance won't apply unless:

- you've told us about any change as listed in section 9.2, general conditions; and
- we've agreed to provide cover, issued a new schedule and where appropriate issued a new certificate of motor insurance.

2. Driving and use

This insurance won't apply if any car your policy allows you to drive is being driven and/or used with your permission:

- other than when in line with your certificate of motor insurance and/or your schedule;
- by any person not described on your certificate of motor insurance and/or your schedule as entitled to drive or be in charge of your car;
- by any person who doesn't have a valid driving licence, is disqualified from driving, has not held a driving licence or who is prevented by law from holding a driving licence;
- by any person who is breaking the conditions of their driving licence;
- for any type of delivery, renting out, peer to peer hire schemes (including when the hirer is using your car) or used for hire and reward including (but not limited to) use for a wedding, or as a taxi or for couriering;
- for racing, pacemaking, speed trials, track days or for competing in National British A or International rallies;
- for any use in connection with the motor trade other than by a member of the motor trade for the purposes of overhaul, upkeep or repair;
- when towing for payment/reward a caravan, trailer or mechanically disabled vehicle;
- for towing more than one caravan, trailer or mechanically disabled vehicle at the same time.

3. Contractual liability

We won't pay for any liability resulting only from a contract or agreement you have with another party.

4. Radioactivity

We won't pay for any loss, damage, liability or cost directly or indirectly caused by:

- radiation or contamination from nuclear fuel or nuclear waste or from burning or explosion of nuclear fuel;
- the radioactive, toxic, explosive, hazardous or contaminating properties of any nuclear installation, reactor or other nuclear assembly or its component part;
- any weapon or device using atomic or nuclear fission or fusion or radioactive force or matter.

5. War, terrorism, riot, civil unrest

We won't pay in the event of:

- war, civil war, terrorism, rebellion or revolution except when required by the Road Traffic Act; or
- riot or civil unrest that happens outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands.

Section 9 General conditions

We'll provide cover under this policy if you or anyone else covered by this insurance meet all the terms and conditions in this document of classic car insurance including those shown on your schedule.

1. Care of your car

You or any person in charge of your car must protect your car from damage or loss.

You must always take the ignition key or device out of the ignition and remove them completely when your car is left unattended. You should lock all doors and close all windows and sun-roofs.

You should ensure your car is kept in a roadworthy condition and you must have a valid Department for Transport Test Certificate (MOT) if one is needed by law.

You must give us access to examine your car and if asked send us evidence of a valid MOT and/or evidence your car was regularly maintained and kept in a roadworthy condition.

2. Your responsibility to provide correct information

When applying for, amending or renewing this insurance you must answer all questions truthfully to the best of your knowledge, including questions that apply to any other person covered by this insurance.

Your schedule shows the answers you've provided and you must let us know if any of the details are incorrect as soon as possible after receiving your documents. At renewal, you must also let us know if any of the information has changed for you and/or anyone insured under your policy, including any claims or motoring convictions/endorsements.

Changes you need to tell us about during the period of cover

You must tell us as soon as possible if:

- you change your car;
- you change the registered keeper;
- you move house or change the address where you keep your car;
- changes are made to the manufacturer's standard specification, which improve the value, appearance, performance or handling of your car;
- your driving licence has changed, such as it is now withdrawn; and
- you change occupation, including part time work.

If you make any of the changes above, you won't be covered unless we've agreed and issued a new schedule and where appropriate issued you a new certificate of motor insurance. This means that if you don't tell us, we may reject any claim or reduce the payments we make.

Where we agree to your change, this may result in an additional or return premium.

If the changes you make mean we can no longer insure you, we'll give you notice of cancellation. Please see section 9.9, general conditions, our rights to cancel your insurance.

Documents and information you may need to give us

To help us validate your details, you may be asked to send us documents, information or allow us to have access to databases.

Examples of documents or information we may require include your driving licence, your driving licence number, your vehicle registration document, proof of your address, and a copy of your utility bill.

Failure to provide the requested documents, information or authority to access any requested databases may result in your policy being cancelled. If a refund is paid, we will deduct our charge for the cancellation and for the time you've been on cover.

3. Misrepresentation, fraud and financial crime

If you or anyone representing you:

- provides us with misleading or incorrect information to any of the questions asked when applying for, amending or renewing this insurance;
- deliberately misleads us to obtain cover, gain a cheaper premium or more favourable terms;
- provides us with false documents;
- makes a fraudulent payment by bank account and/or card;

we may:

- amend your policy to record the correct information, apply any relevant policy terms and conditions and collect any additional premium due. If you pay by instalments, you will be informed if this additional premium cannot be added to your current instalment plan and must be paid in full;
- reject a claim or reduce the amount of payment we make; or
- cancel or void your policy (treat as if it never existed) including all other policies which you have with us, and apply a cancellation charge.

Where fraud is identified, we'll also:

- not return any premium paid by you;
- recover from you any costs we've incurred; and
- pass details to fraud prevention and law enforcement agencies who may access and use this information.

3.1 Claims fraud

If you or anyone representing you:

- makes a claim or part of any claim that is fraudulent, false or exaggerated,

we may:

- reject the claim or reduce the amount of payment we make;
- cancel your policy from the date of the fraudulent act and not return any payment paid;
- recover from you any costs we've incurred relating to the fraudulent claim and any further claims notified after the date of the fraudulent act; and
- pass details to fraud prevention and law enforcement agencies who may access and use this information. Other insurers may also access this information.

4. Accident and claims procedure

You or any other person driving under this insurance must:

- give us full details of any accident as soon as possible;
- inform the police as soon as possible if your car or its contents are stolen or vandalised and provide us with the crime reference number;
- immediately send us all communications from other people involved without replying;
- immediately tell us about and send to us, any notice of intended prosecution, inquest, fatal inquiry or any writ, summons or process without replying; and
- co-operate with us and provide details of your claim that we may request to help us validate and process your claim.

You must not, without our consent:

- negotiate or admit responsibility; or
- make any offer, promise or payment.

We're entitled to:

- have total control to conduct, defend and settle any claim; and
- take proceedings, in your name or in the name of any other person claiming under this insurance, at our own expense and for our own benefit to recover any payment we have made.

5. Other insurances

If any loss, damage or liability is covered by this insurance and is also covered by any other insurance, we'll only pay our share. This condition doesn't apply to section 5, personal accident benefits.

6. Compulsory insurance laws

If under the law of any country we must make a payment which we wouldn't otherwise have to make, you must repay that amount to us.

7. Car sharing

Accepting payments from passengers as part of a car sharing arrangement won't affect your insurance cover if:

- they're being given a lift for social or similar purposes;
- your car isn't built or adapted to carry more than eight passengers;
- this is not as part of a business of carrying passengers; and
- any money received doesn't produce a profit.

8. Voluntary use

Social, domestic and pleasure use includes use of your car for voluntary purposes. No payment or income should be received other than reasonable expenses to cover running costs such as fuel.

9. Cancellation

Our rights to cancel your insurance

We'll cancel immediately or void your insurance back to its start date (treat it as if it never existed) as soon as we identify:

- misrepresentation or any attempt to gain an advantage under this insurance to which you're not entitled;
- your involvement in, or association with insurance fraud and/or financial crime.

We'll cancel your insurance by giving you 7 days' notice if:

- you don't pay the premium or an instalment when we have notified you that the outstanding amount is required by a specific date;
- you or anyone else covered by this insurance hasn't met the terms and conditions in this document of car insurance including those shown on your schedule;
- a change in your circumstances means that we can no longer provide cover;
- you behave in a manner that makes it inappropriate for us to continue your insurance, e.g. if you harass or show abusive or threatening behaviour towards our staff.

Our cancellation notice will confirm the reason for cancellation and be posted and/or emailed to you. The insurance will end immediately when stated on the cancellation notice. But if you've just taken out the policy or renewed with us and the premium is unpaid, we'll cancel your insurance from the start/renewal date. We'll refund the balance of your premium that applies to the remaining period of cover.

If a refund is paid, a cancellation charge will be deducted from the refund.

If a claim has been made or misrepresentation, fraud or financial crime identified, we'll cancel your cover but may not refund any premium. If you're paying by instalments, you must still pay us the balance of the full annual premium.

Your rights to cancel your insurance

Up to 14 days after you receive your documents

At the start of your insurance, when you receive your documents, you have 14 days to check you're happy with the insurance cover you've bought. If the cover doesn't meet your needs, you can cancel your insurance by telling us. If you do this within 14 days of receiving your documents, we'll refund any money you've paid less a charge for the cover you've had and a cancellation charge will apply for setting up the policy. A charge won't be made if you cancel before the cover start date.

More than 14 days after you receive your documents

After the initial 14 days, if you've not made a claim, we'll refund any money you've paid, less a charge for the cover you've had and a cancellation charge. If you've made a claim no refund will be paid.

Please refer to your schedule for details of the charges that apply.

Cancellation at renewal

We'll send you a renewal invitation 3 weeks before your renewal date. This will show your renewal premium and any changes to your insurance policy. If you haven't chosen our continuous payment option, you must contact us before your renewal date to continue with your insurance policy. If you've chosen our continuous payment option, we'll automatically renew your insurance policy before it expires. As part of our renewal process your debit or credit card provider will tell us your new card number if it has changed. If you don't want to renew or your credit card provider has changed please contact us before your renewal date.

If you renew, whether or not under the continuous payment option, but then decide to cancel, provided you tell us before your renewal date, we'll refund what you've paid in full. If you cancel after your renewal date has passed you will be charged in line with the cancellation rules explained on your schedule.

If you are due a refund, we'll send this to you within 7 days of you telling us that you'd like to cancel.

Renewal of your policy

We reserve the right not to invite the renewal of your policy.

Insurance premiums

All premiums include insurance premium tax where applicable. You may also have to pay other taxes or costs, for example if the premium is reimbursed by an employer it may be classed as a taxable benefit in kind. If so you'll need to pay this tax or cost yourself.

10. Premium payment by instalments

- if you agree to pay your premium by monthly direct debit or a similar arrangement you must pay any deposit we ask for and make sure your instalment payments are kept up to date;
- if you make a claim, we may deduct any outstanding amounts due to us before paying the claim.

11. Limited mileage

The maximum annual mileage in any one period of cover must not be more than the limit shown on your schedule.

12. The law that applies to your insurance

If you have a motor policy and live in Guernsey, the law of Guernsey applies or if you live in Jersey, the law of Jersey will apply to that contract with us.

Other than that, the law of England and Wales applies to your contract with us.
